In re James Todd Smith

Ex Parte Appeal No. 90696859

Amy Matelski, Paralegal Specialist:

On July 5, 2023, Appellant filed a subsequent request for an extension of 60 days to file its appeal brief. Appellant submitted the required fee. See Trademark Rule 2.6(a)(18)(iv)-(v), 37 C.F.R. § 2.6(a)(18)(iv)-(v). In its request, Appellant argues that there is good cause for an extension in view of its attempt to negotiate a coexistence agreement with the owner of the cited registration.

Section 1203.02(d) of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board Manual of Procedure (“TBMP”) provides the following explanation about good cause and requests for extensions of time:

The determination of good cause will be based upon all relevant circumstances, including the length of time of any previously granted extensions and the reason(s) for the requested extension(s). Thus, a reason such as the press of other business, which may be sufficient to show good cause for a first extension of thirty days, may not be sufficient for a second extension of time. Depending on the totality of the circumstances, good cause has been found when there has been an appointment of a new attorney, illness, the need to get instructions from a foreign applicant, and attempting to negotiate a consent agreement.

Insofar as Appellant has demonstrated good cause based on the totality of the circumstances, Appellant's request is approved and Appellant is allowed until September 8, 2023 to file its appeal brief. See TBMP § 1203.02(d).
